

You Make a World of Difference

Are you ready for the adventure of living in another culture?

Would you like to offer a home to a student from another country?

More than 8,000 young people each year travel to live with families in other countries as part of the Rotary Youth Exchange... Are you ready for it?

Rotary Youth Exchange is the opportunity of a lifetime for both students and host families.

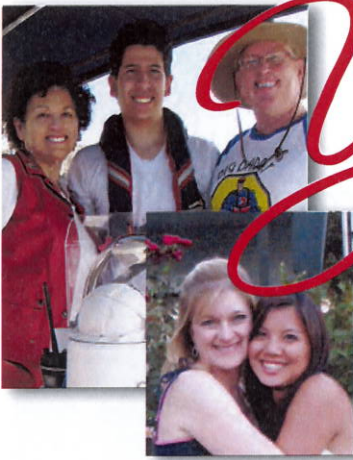

Whether you participate in Rotary's long-term or short-term Youth Exchange programs, you'll learn a different way of life, a great deal about yourself, and maybe a new language as well.

As a Rotary Youth Exchange student, you can spend up to a year living with host families and attending school in a different country. You'll also be an ambassador, teaching people you meet about your country, culture, and ideas. If you want to help bring the world closer and make some good friends in the process, learn more about the Rotary Youth Exchange Programs.

As a Rotary Youth Exchange host family, you will broaden your understanding of the world and promote international good will through your own family. You'll also build a new relationship and extend your opportunities to travel abroad. Your family will have the unique opportunity to introduce a young adult to our culture and daily family life.

When you step off the airplane as a Rotary Exchange Student in another country, you have the opportunity to...

- ▶ Become part of another culture
- ▶ Learn another language

For Host Families

Host families absorb the food and lodging costs, daily living items such as laundry detergent, toothpaste, soap, etc., and expenses for regular family activities such as movies, family dining out, and family excursions. Students are responsible for things such as school events, clothing, postage, and long distance telephone. All students have health insurance while participating in the program. Rotary Clubs will also provide a monthly stipend to the student to help them with incidental expenses and extracurricular activities as well as school lunches if host family does not normally pack a lunch for their own children.
