ABOUT THE CAMP

North State Volleyball All-Skills Camp is a fundraiser to support Butte College volleyball. Head Coach, David Davis and Butte volleyball players will maintain a close coach-to-player ratio to enhance the learning experience. The camp is designed to maximize the potential for every camper as they increase their volleyball skills.

- Registration will also be held at the beginning of camp at 8:30 A.M

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL COACHES ARE WELCOME TO ATTEND AND PARTICIPATE IN POST CAMP SEMINARS.

NORTH STATE VOLLEYBALL CAMP

This camp is a summer volleyball camp for students 4th-8th grade and 9th-12th grade who are interested in improving their volleyball skills. The camp staff brings numerous years of successful, quality teaching and coaching experience to the camp, making it a week of great instruction and fun for all players.

CAMP DIRECTOR AND COACH: DAVID DAVIS

- David has been coaching for 24 years. He has coached college, high school, club, and has been a camp director and coach at Marv Dunphy's Volleyball Camp. He is entering his seventh season as head coach at Butte College after being an assistant during the 2011 season. Before that he coached at Pleasant Valley High School for a total of eight seasons where he had a .735 winning percentage, five league titles, and seven NSCIF section championships.

CAMP INSTRUCTION

- Serving, Passing, Hitting, Blocking, Offense, Defense, and Sportsmanship of the game/team
